

INDIAN REBELLION.

AFFAIRS IN THE FAR NORTHWEST.

The Movement of the Troops Towards the Seat of War—Difficult Transportation.
The Latest Details of the Recent Massacre—A Horrible Butchery.

WINNIPEG, MAN., April 13.—Troops are being despatched rapidly towards the scenes of trouble in the west. This morning Colonel Otter's command, 550 strong, started from Swift Current station across to Saskatchewan river, and thence, if steamers have not in the meantime been able to get down the river, they will start to Cross Prairie by teams to Battleford, and Captain Howard, U. S. A., with two galling guns, is attached to "B" battery under Otter's command. The river is very low. One of Galt's steamers was at the latest advices on the sand bar below Medicine Hat. The Northcoote is somewhere between Medicine Hat and Swift Current. It will require several days to arrange matters.

and in the meantime the boats may turn up. It would take ten days from Cross Prairie to Battleford, and preparations are well under way for the despatch of General Strange's expedition to the relief of Edmonton. He will have about 6000 men mounted and in wagons, and will probably start Wednesday. The trail from Calgary to Red Deer river is reported good, and from Red Deer to Edmonton rather difficult.

be covered in four or five days. Excitement has been caused around Colgarry by the operations of horse and cattle thieves. Strange has instructed the commanding officers of his corps to issue orders to their guards to fire upon all persons attempting to steal horses or commit other depredations.

Some details of the recent tragedy at Frog Lake have just come to hand. The Indians entered Gowanlock's house, and without saying a word deliberately shot him dead. Another Indian raised his rifle and aimed it at W. C. Gilchrist, when Mrs. Gowanbeck, rushing forward, pinned his arms by clasp ing him around the body. He shook her off and fired, killing her instantly, and immediately afterwards shot Mr. Gilchrist. Edmonton freighters have been notified that it is not advisable at present to move with freight. Inquiries show that there is nothing to be feared from the Indians outside the province of Manitoba. The report that the chief of the Manitobians at Rainy Lake was giving trouble was a hoax.
